For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

Enclosures

The enclosed documents represent the final release of information responsive to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mrs. DOROTHY HUNT, 11120 River Road, Potomac, Maryland, was interviewed by Special Agents (SA) [redacted] at the WFO of the FBI, 12th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), and SA's [redacted] identified themselves to Mrs. HUNT as SA's of the FBI. Mrs. HUNT advised that she is the wife of EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT, JR., who also resides at 11120 River Road, Potomac, Maryland. Europe
Born 4-1-20, Dayton, Ohio

Mrs. SA [redacted] advised Mrs. HUNT that she was being contacted concerning information she may possess concerning a burglary at the offices of the Democratic National Committee Headquarters, Watergate Office Building, 2650 Virginia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., which occurred on June 17, 1972.

b6 per fbi
b7C

Mrs. HUNT stated that she does not feel that she possesses any information which is directly related to the burglary at the Democratic National Headquarters and that the only information she possesses concerning this burglary is what she has read in the local newspapers. Mrs. HUNT noted that she has read considerable information to the effect that her husband, EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT, JR., may have been associated with the individuals who were arrested for the burglary of the Democratic National Committee Headquarters (DNCH) but stated that she does not feel that her husband is involved with these men.

SA [redacted] displayed a series of two black and white photographs of unknown white males and a series of letters which were signed [redacted] and [] a Uruguayan National. Mrs. HUNT explained that during the late 1950's and early 1960's she and her husband were having considerable difficulties in their marital relations. She stated that her husband spent a considerable amount of time [in his job as a member of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)] and that she learned that he was carrying on extramarital affairs with other women. Mrs. HUNT stated she sought solace for her marital difficulties by carrying on extramarital affairs with the aforementioned individuals. (X) Yg

Mrs. HUNT stated that in the early 1960's she and her husband considered terminating their marriage in a divorce. However, she stated that she and her husband could not reach an agreement on what to do with their children and felt that it would be financially impossible for them to maintain separate quarters. Mrs. HUNT said that they decided to attempt to resolve their marital difficulties and that she admitted to her husband that she had carried on extramarital affairs with the aforementioned individuals and that she took all the letters, photographs and other materials that she had received from these individuals and gave them to her husband to destroy. Mrs. HUNT stated that she is shocked to find these letters and other materials in the hands of the FBI as she had believed that they had been destroyed more than ten years ago.

SA [] then displayed to Mrs. HUNT a .25 caliber colt automatic pistol serial number 321803 and asked if she was familiar with the weapon.

b6 per fbi
b7C

Mrs. HUNT stated that this is her personal weapon and stated that she is surprised that it is in the hands of the FBI as she thought that the weapon was in a closet at her residence at 11120 River Road, Potomac, Maryland. Mrs.

HUNT stated that she was given this weapon prior to 1946 when she traveled to China to work on the behalf of the U. S. Treasury Department. She stated that she had nearly forgotten about the gun but stated that she does not know how or when this gun was removed from her residence. She stated that her husband possesses a German Luger pistol and that she is certain that it is still at her residence as she observed it during the evening hours of June 24, 1972.

Mrs. HUNT: SA [] displayed the following photographs to

Mrs. HUNT stated that she does not know exactly what her husband's position was with the CIA prior to his retirement in 1970. Mrs. HUNT stated that she knew that her husband was a GS-15 and believes that he was in the European Affairs Section as a political propaganda writer. Mrs. HUNT stated that JOHN HART was her husband's superior at the CIA. (X) (U)

Mrs. HUNT stated that at the present time she believes her husband to be employed at the White House as a consultant, at the Robert R. Mullen Company as a writer and holding an unknown position with the Committee to Re-Elect the President. Mrs. HUNT stated that in the Spring of 1972, her husband made two trips to Miami, Florida, and one trip to Los Angeles, California, for what she believed to be negotiations concerning the change of the Republican National Convention from San Diego, California, to Miami, Florida.

Mrs. HUNT stated that she last saw her husband on May 31, 1972, when she departed with her daughter for a vacation tour of Europe. Mrs. HUNT stated that she last spoke to her husband on June 21, 1972, by phone in London, England, and he advised her that there was a "problem" here in Washington and that he was going to go to New York, New York, to do television commercials. Mrs. HUNT stated that her husband claimed that there was considerable harassment from reporters and that he was going to New York, New York, to do the television commercial and then go on a vacation for a few days to lure the reporters away from their residence.

Mrs. HUNT stated that she has not heard or spoken with her husband since that time and that she has no idea concerning his present whereabouts.

Mrs. HUNT stated that the items that were displayed to her earlier in the interview may have been kept by her husband in a safety deposit box they maintained at the Riggs National Bank at Wisconsin and M Street, N.W., WDC. Mrs. HUNT
